and understood her, and would be known, she sat down for the stone seat before her all of conflicting emotions of grief and thankfulness for her escape, she burst into tears.

But at this moment a shrill whistle arrested her attention. It was from her prisoner, Heinrich, who, opening the grated window above her head, shouted to some accomplice without to catch the child that was running away so fast, and to kill the girl.

The Daily News.

Tuesday Morning, Dec. 18, 1860.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Whither are we tending, and what are we coming to? Two or three insignificant States, or at the most five, have set the whole country by the ears, and men are rushing to and fro, and are at their wits' ends to know what is to be the end of these things. Some rejoice at it, yet, and even go so far as to let their joy be known. These are the extreme abolitionists and the more rabid of the democrats; one seeing in it the speedy consummation of their long cherished scheme of universal emancipation, and the other choosing that the Government should go to ruin rather than pass into honest hands. Meantime let every true patriot take courage, and trusting in the God of right, stand firm to the principles which are hallowed by every consideration of justice as laid down by the Constitution. If our Southern brethren will rush madly on to their own destruction, disregarding alike the counsels of right and the dictates of reason, on them rest the consequences.

CONCILIATION.—The Augusta (Ga.) True Democrat argues that it is impossible to effect a reconciliation between the North and South, for the following reasons:

To effect it, the North must repudiate the "irrepressible conflict," she must root out the educated brutality of her sentiments—she must burn the minds of her people as with a red-hot iron—she must draw fire from Heaven to consume her statute books—she must repent in sack cloth and ashes—she must become regenerated and renewed by a spiritual miracle. The sequence of this change would be:

1st. She would have to see the institution of slavery as we see it, or allow us to manage it in accordance with the dictates of our own judgments.

2nd. She would have to recognize our rights under the Constitution to be as good as lost.

3d. She would have to admit that slavery expansion is as lawful and constitutional as that of her free society.

4th. She would have not only to recognize our rights, but directly aid, by her mental, moral and political power, in maintaining and enforcing them.

Nothing short of this would afford protection to slave property and safety to slaveholders in the Union.

Nothing short of a miracle could effect this radical change in the Northern mind. It would be almost as easy to charm the stars from their orbits with our smiles as to effect this change in the mind of the North. The effort would be vain. He who would hope to accomplish it is a theorist and a dreamer.

When South Carolina shall have declared her independence, will she be a free state?

There are, according to the Blue-Book, 781 South Carolinians on Uncle Sam's pay roll. Of this number, nine have recently resigned.

Ramon Pico, who recently made a match, in California, to run 150 miles in six hours and a half, has just accomplished the cruel feat—within 22 minutes of the required time, using 32 horses in the race.

Says the Louisville Democrat, the most fortunate man that we know of now-a-days is Sharpe, the maker of rifles. The Southern ultras and the abolitionists are each buying them. We have an idea that he looks upon the present difficulties with the pious resignation that an undertaker does upon a prevailing epidemic.

An oyster-boat swamped at Alexandria, Va., on Monday night, and George Howard attempting to swim ashore, was drowned; his son clung to the mast, and was rescued by a passing steamer, nearly frozen to death.

A Union member illustrated his position the other day by the anecdote of the political offender who was executed by Napoleon. "I die," said he to the Emperor, "because the people have lost their reason. You will die when they regain it."

A sharper case is now pending before the Superior Court of O. One smart rogue traded off a tract of land upon another, for gold chains, put in at $30 each. The land was three feet under water, and the gold chains are sold at $9 a dozen.

Peter Woodworth, a clerk in Stewart's store, New York city, has been arrested for supporting a mistress and all her family out of stealings from his shelves. He didn't get the girl's father a coat pattern, as desired of him, and so the old man "blowed on him."

"A Portuguese giant of eight feet," says an exchange, will soon be exhibited. What an octobede! What an awful bill for boots he must have! Why he is a company of foot in himself, and what a trouble he would be in bad weather, putting his eight muddy feet on the carpet at once!

"The Hon. Caleb Cushing says that whatever may have been done on board the James Gray, in regard to the Palmato flag, was done 'without any orders, knowledge or privity on the part of either of my brothers or myself; and that our first and only knowledge of the matter at the time was derived from the telegraphic statement as it appeared in various shapes in the newspapers of Boston.'"

Gen. Cass, with emphasis—"Well, young man, you've met old Cass again!"

The stranger eloped, and has not been heard of since.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Just against the City.

We learn that Henry Bull, Esq., has brought a suit against the city for damages to his estate on Thames Street, occasioned by lowering the grade of the street. It seems that the sidewalk in front of these estates was lowered about ten inches, making it necessary for him to put out steps in order to use the stores. Mr. Bull related his sidewalk and placed steps in front of his shop doors, whereupon the city brought an action against him for putting steps on the sidewalk. As the city will not allow Mr. Bull to retain his steps in front of the doors, and as the stores cannot be used without steps in consequence of the lowering of the grade, Mr. Bull claims damages of the city under an act of the State which is as follows:

"Whenever the grade of any street or highway shall be lawfully changed, and the estate of any abutting proprietor shall be injured thereby, the town in which such change of grade shall have been made, shall be liable to pay the damages occasioned to said estate by such change of grade."

As the complaining officer himself and others have recently projected steps upon the street under less justifiable circumstances without interruption, (this being the first and only prosecution of the kind) Mr. Bull feels that a suit was brought against him from personal motives rather than official duty.

FALSE RUMOR.—The statement published yesterday morning, that an attempt had been made to set fire to the residence of Hon. George A. Calvert, was entirely without foundation. Such reports are always circulated during times of excitement, like the present, and although we are exceedingly careful in regard to their publications, without they come from a responsible source, it is unnecessary to say that in spite of the utmost precaution we are sometimes deceived.

MR. DOWNING'S LOSS was erroneously stated in our paper yesterday morning. It is estimated at about $18,000, on which he has insurance of $4000 at the Washington and $2000 at the Slater, of Providence. The Merchants' office, of that city, has a risk of $2000 on the furniture, much of which had been removed.

GOOD BYE, DELTA.—The New Orleans True Delta has ascended from our exchange list. The Delta was a good paper, but this act indicates a most awful falling from grace.

MISSED A FIGURE.—The compositor missed a figure in setting up our estimate of how much was saved to the insurance people by the daring of one man at the Ocean House. We wrote 30,000.

THE PERRY, on her trip up yesterday, encountered ice half an inch thick down as far as Pawtuxet. Farther up it was found at a thickness of two inches.

THE OCEAN HOUSE.—It is thought that in view of the events of Saturday night the proprietors of this house will see the necessity of providing more ready means of access to the roof in case of fire.

THE ATLANTIC HOUSE CISTERN.—We are told there was great difficulty experienced in finding the Atlantic House cistern Saturday night, causing delay in procuring water. The matter needs looking to.

THE NEW ALARM BELL is expected to arrive this morning by the New York boat. It is made of steel, weighs 1050 pounds, and is expected to make itself heard in every part of the city.

DIDN'T GET MUCH.—We learn that the Coal office of Mr. Charles Williams was broken into Saturday night. Failing to find the lucre the rascals stole his wrights. They will find them O. K.

The Senator and the Dromos.—The senior Mr. Guy, of the National Hotel at Washington, bears quite a likeness to Gen. Cass, and upon this the correspondent of the New York Times tells the following story:

A stranger, who supposed he knew my host very well, put up at the National the other night, and, for the first night, was sent to the upper floor to sleep. Coming down stairs the next morning, a little cross, he met Gen. Cass, who has a fine suit of rooms there, in the hall, stepped up to him, and in language more forcible and rapid than elegant, said: "I'll be—d if I'll stand it! You've put me at the top of the house. I must have a room lower down."

General Cass, interposing nervously: "Sir, you are mistaken in the person you are addressing. I am General Cass of Michigan."

Stranger, confusedly: "Beg your pardon, General Cass, thought it was my old friend Guy. Beg a thousand pardons, Sir. All a mistake, all a mistake, I assure you, Sir."

The General passed out of the building, but soon returned; as luck would have it, the stranger met him full in the face again, but in another position. This time he was sure he had him hoist, for the Senator from Michigan he knew had just gone out. So the stranger stepped boldly up, slapped the General heartily and familiarly on the shoulder, and exclaimed:

Gen. Cass, with emphasis—"Well, young man, you've met old Cass again!"

The stranger eloped, and has not been heard of since.

"Canvassing a joke—Offering it for sale."

Gone off to Paris unknown.—We are told that Mr. Buchanan is about to publish, in the official organ, an advertisement to this effect:

"ONE CENT REWARD will be paid to whoever will arrest, but not return, an agent of mine who answers to the name of Howell Cobb. He was employed, at high wages, to manage my fiscal affairs. At the time he began his work my chests were full, and ever since my estate has been highly prosperous; but in some mysterious way he has disposed of this surplus and left me almost bankrupt. Instead of remaining to help me out of my difficulties, he has, in the most dishonorable manner, cut stick, and it is said will devote the rest of his days in a still more dishonorable manner, to making war upon me and my friends. The public is cautioned against this faithless servant."

Mr. Buchanan would not be unjust in thus exposing his old companion. Cobb has done more than any man in the Cabinet to bring the administration into difficulty if not contempt. His wretched mismanagement of the treasury, and his late efforts to produce a panic in the money market, will not soon be forgotten. But it caps the climax of his treachery to find him deserting the government in the midst of the embarrassments he has so largely produced.

—N. Y. Post.

A Wedding and a Runaway Wife all in one day.—Just Friday a young man applied to the Mayor, and told him that he loved one of the fair nymphs, then an occupant of the city prison, and that if his Honor would let her out of jail and unite them in the bonds of wedlock, he would take her out of the way of temptation. His Honor complied with the request, and the two were married without fee or reward. Perhaps the Mayor kissed the bride, and perhaps he didn't; we did not inquire; but if he did, it was all the fee he got. The happy pair started on foot on a wedding tour to the rural districts. They had not got far beyond the city limits when an old grony met them, and gave the young groom a dime and a bottle, and sent him back to get a quart of whisky. The happy husband, in response to the wifely looks of his bride, yielded to the tempter and started for the liquor. When he returned both wife and friend had vanished, and in his despair he swallowed the liquid, returned to town and bewailed his hard fate so noisily on the streets that he got in jail for being drunk and disturbing the peace. This was quick work, as it all happened in a few hours. —Indianapolis Sentinel.

A Frog Story.—The Hartford Press prints the story about six ladies of Toledo swallowing live frogs daily, to cure them of consumption, and following it up with another, e. g.:

A couple of gentlemen from a neighboring town, who were called to watch with a sick person, who had been given over by his physicians, and apparently had but a short time to live, after some conversation relative to the improbability of stories of recovery by frogs inhaling a sick person's breath, placed at the dying man's mouth was as dead as Julius Caesar after only three or four breaths had been drawn; the second lived some time longer and died; the third lived about half an hour, and though others were applied, none of them died. The sick person immediately began to mend, and finally recovered. The parties to the transaction, who tell the story themselves, are highly respectable.

In speaking of the formation of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, the New York Times says: "The President elect will follow the example set by Washington, who, it will be remembered, gave a conspicuous place in his Cabinet to Jefferson, with the full knowledge of the fact that he belonged to an entirely different school of political philosophy."

From New Mexico.—The New Mexican mail has arrived at Independence, with dates to the 26th ult.

Mr. Whitney, postmaster at Santa Fe, came through as passenger. He reports very dull times in New Mexico; also that the Indian troubles on the plains are assuming a very serious aspect.

At McKee's Creek the mail party were charged upon by thirty Comanche Indians, and it was only by decided and prompt action that they succeeded in keeping them off. The Indians were well armed with rifles; the mail party were detained an hour by the attack, and then retreated to the train seven miles behind. The out-going mail was also forced to retreat, by the Indians, to Pawnee Fork.

Mr. Whitney says that from the Cameron to Pawnee Fork, Indians were seen every day on high ridges, and there is no doubt that they will cut off small parties traveling on the road.

Since the raid on Mr. Walker a few days ago, and subsequent killing of the two men that escaped, the citizens of this county have organized themselves into patrol companies, and should any more such bands make their appearance they will be summarily dealt with.

A Happy Convert.—A girl out West having professed religion, was so extremely happy that she was ever afterward singing at the top of her voice that old hymn:—"The love of God is coming down." &c. Nothing stopped her from singing this song. One day old "Jowler," the house-dog, came in while she was singing, and helped himself to a piece of meat on the table. Polly, observing the movement of Jowler continuing her singing, said:

"If you don't get out I'll knock you down. Hallelujah, Hallelujah!"

You nasty, stinking, lop-eared hound, Oh, glory, Hallelujah."

Henry Meigs, the great California forger, and who left San Francisco owing debts to the amount of $1,600,000, is in Chili, where he has made money. He offers to pay his creditors ten per cent. of his indebtedness on the first of July next, and an additional ten per cent. in notes. For their security, he proposes to mortgage his property in Chili, and the future labor of his life. He is engaged there in constructing railroads.

It is not at all doubted that the Charleston people will attempt to take possession of forts Moultrie, Sumpter and Castle Pinckney in Charleston bay. The defence of these forts is in the hands of only 300 men.

LATEST NEWS.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

St. John's, N. F., Dec. 16th, via Sackville, Dec. 17th.—The steamship Bohemia, from Liverpool 6th, via London, arrived 8th inst., was boarded by the news yacht of the Associated Press off Cape Race at 4 P. M., to-day, en route for Portland.

The seige of Gteta continued, and four batteries had opened fire on the place. The Prince Albert, North American, Kangaroo and Bremen had arrived 9th.

FROM THE SOUTH.

South Carolina Legislature Adjourns to Charleston.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 15.—The House has adjourned to Charleston. The Senate will probably concur.

But few delegates to the Convention have arrived. Mr. Hooker, Commissioner from Mississippi, and Elmore, from Alabama, are here.

There is no doubt but this State will promptly pass the ordinance of secession. The small pox prevails here, deterring hundreds from visiting the Convention.

New York, Dec. 17.—The Herald's Washington correspondent says that Gen. Scott accompanied by the Secretary of War, had a violent interview with the President on Saturday, and a rumor prevails that Scott was about resigning, but it is not probable.

It is also reported that prominent Republicans are about urging Lincoln to announce his views upon the present crisis, with a view to disabuse the minds of the Southern people regarding his position towards their constitutional rights.

Reports are again current of armed resistance to the inauguration of Lincoln; that 2500 men are secretly enrolled to prevent it.

The Mayor and a large portion of the Boston city government are here ostensibly about the harbor improvements, but it is thought relative to the Union movement North.

The World's Washington correspondent says that the meeting of the New York Congressional delegation took strong Union ground, and a resolution that New York will remain true to the Union, was passed unanimously.

Judge Douglas will not speak at present. He favors exhausting all peaceable measures for the settlement of existing difficulties.

Relief for Kansas.

Atchison, Dec. 15.—Over 149,303 pounds of flour, meal, corn and beans have been received during the week ending the 12th, from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The town is crowded with teams from the interior for supplies.

Mr. Bates Visits Mr. Lincoln. Springfield, Ill., Dec. 16.—Hon. Edward Bates had an interview with Mr. Lincoln to-day. The interior was offered to him. Mr. Bates takes the ground that secession is treason and must be put down, and also that the authority of the Government should be maintained at all hazards.

The Charleston Fortifications to be Defended.

New York, Dec. 16.—The Herald Washington correspondent says the President declares that he will defend the fortifications at Charleston against any attempt to take them.

Married.

In Pawtucket, 11th inst., by Rev. J. M. H. Dow, Mr. Edward B. Williams to Miss Sarah G. Tiffany, both of Coventry.

ERUPTIONS, SALT RHEUM, ERY SIPHAS.

It is now generally admitted that all eruptive diseases depend upon some internal or constitutional cause, and that to use washes or ointments for them is a sure way to injure the system, and only to drive in, not to cure the disease. Dr. HARRIS'S SALT RHEUM PILLS are a true specific for all such diseases. They cure Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Erysipelas, Pimples on the face, Ringworm, and Nettle Rash, by curing the cause upon which they depend, and by restoring the skin to the state of health and purity. Thus, not only is the disease cured, but the softness and beauty of the complexion restored.

A FRIEND IN NEED, TRY IT! DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, the great external remedy of the age, prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the celebrated bone-setter, whose fame is unrivaled by any of our living men. It is a certain and immediate cure for rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, sores, burns, scalds, piles, lumbago, headache, toothache, and all rheumatic and nervous disorders, external injuries, &c. All sufferers should give it a trial. See advertisement.

CAUTION TO MARRIED OR SINGLE LADIES.

On account of the deception used by pretenders to the sale of medicines for the use of females, it is requisite for ladies to use caution in the purchase of them. Taking this view of the case, Dr. Cudworth, No. 3 Orange street, Providence R. I., offers his medicine to the public as the best ever used for females. His Drops and Pills for Suppression or Irregularities, are unsurpassed by any offered to the public. They have never failed in one single case, and can be warranted to perform perfect and permanent cures in the most obstinate cases. His medicines for all other complaints, also stand pre-eminent for their success in curing all who use them.

In the treatment of those complaints peculiar to females Dr. C. acknowledges no superior, and in all cases will warrant a perfect cure from disease or trouble. Ladies seeking medical assistance will do well to consult Dr. Cudworth, No. 181 High street, before calling elsewhere.

N. B.—Ladies can consult Dr. C. by letter, stating symptoms, by addressing as above, and have medicaments sent from observation.

Office open day and evening. Address—D. CUDWORTH, M. D., Providence, R. I.

J. D. FOWLER, ARTIST IN PHOTOGRAPHY AND AMBROTYPE.

WOULD inform the citizens of Newport, that on Saturday, Dec. 1st, he will go into winter quarters at 144 Thames St., opposite the Traders Bank, where he hopes for a continuance and increase of that patronage which was so liberally given him during the last winter, having made important additions to, and improvements in, his working arrangements, and having secured the services of a competent and experienced workman from Philadelphia, (Mr. F. Kindler), he will be able to give his personal attention to the finishing of his pictures, and can assure his customers of even more satisfactory results than ever before. Several new styles will be introduced and all work warranted.
Both Galleries open on Thanksgiving day,
at 144 Thames St., by F. Kindler and J. D.
Fowler, in Downings Row, J. D. Fowler.

THE CHAMPION BELT IS OURS!
DR. J. BOYCE DOD'S
IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS
ARE universally acknowledged to be superior to all others now before the public; being composed of Barberry, Spikenard, and Cherry Tree Bark, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, and other pure and healthful ingredients, they are the best remedy known for Incipient Consumption, Weak Lungs, Dropsy, Indigestion, Debility, Nervous Diseases, Paralysis, Piles, and all cases requiring a Tonic.

FOR SORE THROAT
 So common among the Clergy and other Public Speakers, it acts like a charm.

As a beverage it is pure, wholesome and delicious to the taste.

Physicians throughout the United States use it in their practice.

Despair Not, Relief is at Hand
CAUTION TO THE AFFLICTED

Dr. Cudworth,
NO. 181 HIGH STREET, PROV-
DENCE

AFTER an extensive practice for many years, and witnessing the rise and fall of empiricism to almost an alarming extent, owing to the laxity of the laws in large cities, which gives to the mere ignoramus the same privilege of practicing medicine in all diseases incident to the human system, which the most scientific, skillful and experienced physicians and surgeons can in any case claim, and as it has done, I caution strangers to beware of certain upstarts who make great pretensions to the healing art, without so much as a shadow of medical education; the experience of many years in venercal nature, in its various forms, will prove beneficial to those suffering from such diseases, and from his practical knowledge of every symptom consequent on, or arising from badly cured cases of Venereal Complaint, he would caution all having any secondary symptoms remaining, to be at once cured properly before it has undermined their constitution, and broken down their intellectual faculties.

LOOK TO YOUR CASE IN TIME
Medicine prepared at a mucous notice:—All communications will be promptly attended to.

TO YOUNG MEN—The temptations to which youth are constantly exposed, and the various snares laid for their capture, and the thousand designing are fearfully on the increase in this city of "steady habits." All who may be suffering from any such indispositions, should bear in mind that the sooner they make their situation known to some practical medical man, the better it will be for their future welfare and happiness.

CUDWORTH can be consulted at all hours to advantage.
YOUNG MEN, YOU CAN BE CURED.

Dr. CUDWORTH calls the attention of young men to his splendid and invigorating Compounds, so famous for the cure of the following diseases:

Coughs, Croup, Bronchitis, Consumption,
 Asthma, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs. Dyspepsia, Colic, Complaint, Cancer, Scrophula, Grysipelas, &c., Pains in the Limbs,
 Head and Joints, Dizziness in the Head, Rhu-matism in the Ears, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Constitutional Debility, Want of Rest, Loss of Appetite. Cold Hands and Feet, Rush of Blood to the Head, Melancholy Forebodings, Trembling in the Stomach, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Semina, Weakness, and all symptoms caused by any other complaints which induce, or

BE WISE—When afflicted with a certain disease do not spend your money to have our health ruined by taking a host of medicines, such as mixtures, extracts, specifics, antidotes, etc., that are advertised as certain cures, which will only drive the unfortunate patient almost to despair. Call at once on a physician who will cure you in a few days.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Gentlemen requiring medical advice or treatment arising from any case, would do well to avail themselves of the present diffidence and make an early application to Dr. Cudworth. The Doctor's (long and successful) practice, together with the many marvellous cures, are unquestionable warranties of his skill and ability.

DR. CUDWORTH'S FEMALE SPECIFIC.—This remedy, which has been so successful in all cases of Suppression and Irregularity, in the Menstrual and Childbed ladies, is only to be procured at his office, No. 41 Orange street, Strand.

The testimony as to the invaluable virtue of this curative over all others, is incontestable.

Sent by mail to all parts of the Union, or express. All letters enclosing $1 for service, duly attended to.

WORCESTER, Dec. 15, 1865.

DR. CUDWORTH.—Dear Sir,—I have experienced so much benefit from your remedy, that I beg to tender you my most sincere thanks.

I am Sir, respectfully, MRS. N. M. N.
Open day and evening from 8 a. m. to 8 p.
